Class Prophecy

Wednesday, April 27

I, Cathy Stirniman, was chosen to write the class prophecy with the help of Roger Hays. His help consisted of building a time machine, thereby making it a much easier task, so here we are in 1992. Our first view of this new world was a dense jungle. Our first sounds were human voices, "Cut! Cut! Take it from Scene 3!" A native crept up behind us and if it wasn't Dave DeCoste. Dave is a great actor and is starring in the motion picture, "Gunga Din", directed by the Producer of the Year, Dale Fatlan. Dave agreed to help us locate our class members of 1966. Tomorrow we will begin our search.

Thursday, April 28

At 8:00 this morning we traveled to Louisiana and made our first stop at a special education school where we talked to Sue Beane and Kathy Satorius. Transportation in this new world is a great marvel to us. Ron Hostert and Charlie Rapp explained their new invention to us, the helicopter that seats 53. Charlie had the idea and Ron provided him with the capital. Ron has a health resort in Siberia and he informed me that Ann Briscoe is his Social Director, specializing in volleyball. All of her equipment is purchased from the great salesman, Warren Chandler. Heaven only knows what Warren's doing up there in Siberia.

At 12:00 we ate lunch in the White Willow Cafe owned and managed by Craig Mann. Craig came out and talked to us personally. He told us he gets all his fruit and vegetables at a discount price, from Gus Rousonelos' Garden Plantation. Craig also told us where to find Cindy Lewis and Terry Reed. We thanked him and set out for the Model's Photography Studio in New York. We arrived in New York at 3:00 and at 3:30 we were watching a great photographer at work, Terry Reed. Cindy was posing with a moose for an advertisement in an outdoor magazine when the moose bit her leg. Since Cindy is such an old friend of Linda's, I doubt if she will sue the McCowan Moose Farm for damages.

Friday, April 29

Today we saw Myra Iverson, Joan Kettelson, and Evelyn Coop at the National Convention of Men-Haters. The speaker, Becky Gilliam, gave a very stimulating talk on the harmful effects of alcohol. Across the street from the convention we saw some determined friends trying to get people into their building. Bob Bols, Montie Gerber, Gene Briscoe, and Bob Bleuer seem to think their "Make Money Fast Agency" would be a success if only people would listen. We listened and—well, maybe their luck will hold out for a little while longer. After the convention we decided to rent a car at Willy's Car Service, Rent, and Repairs Shop owned by none other than Bill Wilson. We then drove to Michigan State University, where we weren't surprised to learn that Ken Wilhelmi is President. Ken mentioned the nearest hospital where Juno Eneix, Jerry Unland, and Jack Galloway were recovering from a little accident. It seems they were attempting to drive an antique, when the '57 Chevy suddenly blew up in their faces. Orpha Knudson, the head X-ray specialist, has been put on the case. At 8:30 we decided to see a special show at McCormick Place. We were absolutely shocked when we saw the program. Five of our old school friends are now entertainers. Kit Johnson, using the name, Soapy Soles, was MC and Budd Kennedy, comedian, was singing about 8 bars of Soapy's theme song—"Soap." We saw an excellent monkey act featuring Jim Monday and Bonnie Link (they were the trainers, of course). They worked out the act in their laboratory in their spare time. They are both professionals in the field of graphology and astrology. The last one of our friends in the program was Jean Wildey. Jean sang the song that made her famous—"How Dry I Am" to the tune of "Little Brown Jug." It was-uh-different?

After the show we ended our third day talking to Landis Smith and Dick Davidson in their fabulous playboy penthouses. They are both located at the top of Ag Siron, Incorporated. In this building Ag controls many separate little offices ranging from an Unemployment Bureau to a Hand-painted Easter Egg Company. Jackie Vaughn, Allen Brooks, Mary Ann Slingsby, and Steve Thorsen also have an office in Ag Siron, Incorporated. Landis said we'd never believe it unless we saw it, so we got to the 14th floor on an elevator operated by Bill Sorenson. When we finally got to the 14th floor after a little trouble with the elevator, there was the office, "The Lonely Hearts Club for the Underprivileged Aged." We still don't believe it. Becky Shearer also has an office here, "The Guidance Council for Young Girls."

Saturday, April 30

Today is our last day in the year 1992, so we got an early start at 6:30 this morning. We went to Texas first and had a guided tour of the largest oil wells in the world. They belong to Jim Good, Stan Holland, and Ed Harrison. Stan found the oil when he was drilling for water to operate his Tastee Freeze. Their receptionist and secretary is Brenda Milliorn.

From Texas we flew to Pennsylvania where we watched Juanita Fitzer give a Home Economics demonstration. Nita was elected Homemaker of the Century. We learned from her that Linda Eastman, Penny Todd, Donna McCoy, and Bob Turner were working in Boston. Linda, Penny, and Donna are Social Workers and have helped the slum problem a great deal. Bob is a very expensive hair stylist and caters to the elite debutantes of the social world.

At 2:30 we went to Happy Valley, Illinois and had a coffee break with Linda Sweeney, Karen Hall and Carolyn Teague, who are happy just being housewives.

At 5:30 we saw Connie Flatness and Dawn Peacock in their offices at the Girl's Athletic Association Headquarters in Chicago. Connie is president and Dawn is the treasurer. We got to the GAA building on a bus driven by Bob Shearer. In his spare time, Bob is a body guard in South Chicago.

At 7:00 we made our last stop in Hawaii and visited the last 3 members of the class of 1966. Linda Dyer, Barbara Allen, and Jo Ann Beever relax in the comfort of their millions. Money keeps rolling in from their monthly magazine "The Happy Housewives Get Together for a Little Chat Over a Cup of Coffee" or "The Gossip Flies."

Tomorrow we will be back in our own time, the year 1966. Next year we may let the prophecy writers borrow Time Machine '66 for a few days—for a small fee of course. Would $3 million be too much?

Class Will

We, the class of 1966, being of sound mind and body hereby bequeath, both individually and collectively, the following properties which we accumulated during our sojourn in the halls of Minooka High:

I, Barbara Allen, will my old Bookkeeping book to any Junior who is fool enough to take Bookkeeping.

I, Suzanne Beane, will my Chemistry tutor, Mike Hoyland, and all my Chemistry papers to any Junior lucky enough to get 'em . . . the papers that is.

I, Jo Ann Beever, will my superior height to Diane Heathcoat.

I, Bob Bleuer, will my ability to test drive riding lawn mowers in Ag to Bill Lorraine.

I, Bob Bols, will my ability to arrive at school on time and also my assigned parking place to Danny Byers.

I, Ann Briscoe, will my ability to go steady with the same boy for two years and three months to Andrea Hammond.

I, Gene Briscoe, will my F.F.A. Secretary's book (that hasn't been written in yet) to Wayne Winkler; and to Judy Baltz, the bottom half of her locker.

I, Allen Brooks, will my brains to my brother Pearce.

I, Warren Chandler, will my post as Track Captain to any deserving Junior and my great ability to run the hurdles to my brother John.

I, Eve Coop, will my 2 missing Supreme albums to anyone who can find them and my ability to stay away from other girls' boyfriends to Lindsay Lake.

I, Dick Davidson, will all of my homework that I never got done in Mr. Winslow's 5B study hall, to Bob Friant.

I, Dave DeCoste, will my "superior?" acting ability to Bill Lorraine.

I, Linda Dyer, will nothing but good luck to everyone who attends Minooka High School. They'll need it.

I, Linda Eastman, will to anyone who has classes 5A, B, and C my 4th hour lunch period.

I, Juno Eneix, will the title to my '57 Chevy and my place in the library after school to anybody who wants it.

I, Dale Fatlan, will my name Cy to anyone who's hard up for a name.

I, Juanita Fitzer, will my absent-mindedness to-ah-what's her name?, and my hateful nickname (Fitz) to my sister Sue.

I, Connie Flatness, will my 8 years of Band to somebody who is tone deaf and my ability to talk too much to Cathy Jones.

I, Jack Galloway, will my ability to come in anytime at night and not get in trouble to Ed Kruger.

I, Montie Gerber, will my "Loopy Lou Wheels" to anybody dumb enough to buy a Studebaker.

I, Becky Gilliam, will all my demerits to Gael Weigerding. She had better bring her dinner because she won't be eating at home much.

I, James Good, will my superior acting ability to anyone because no one's as "good" as I am.

I, Karen Hall, will my absence to Mr. Penosky so he can stop confusing me with my other two sisters, Kay and Connie.

I, Ed Harrison, will my ability to be the only boy in a whole class of girls to Dave Murley.

I, Roger Hays, will my ability to think of wills to anyone who can't think of wills.

I, Stan Holland, will my Safest Driver of the Year Award to Mr. Decker's wife.

I, Ron Hostert, will my ability to be a plain, old, ordinary guy to John Warmouth.

I, Myra Iverson, will my ability to be the last one out of the shower room to Gael Weigerding.

I, Kit Johnson, will my size 10 gym shoes to Jim Seehafer, if they're not too small.

I, Budd Kennedy, will nothing to nobody because I'm gonna need all I got!

I, Joan Kettelson, will my ability to laugh at the wrong time to anyone who wants it.

I, Orpha Knudson, will my ability to go with the same boy for 4½ years to Gael Weigerding and my orange party shoes to Mr. Decker.

I, Cindy Lewis, will my orange and black beanie, that has been willed from cheerleader to cheerleader for the last 5 years, to Brenda Brooks.

I, Bonnie Link, will my very unusual, but talented, ability of walking into walls in Trig class to Arlene Boese.

I, Craig Mann, will the mayorship of White Willow to Bob Friant and all left over parts for a 1960 Triumph to Jerry Unland.

I, Linda McCowan, will all of my problems, which are many, to Gayle Stalker.

I, Donna McCoy, will my ability to get Kit Johnson down on his knees and tell me he loves me (remember the Senior Play?) to any Junior girl who has a secret crush on him.

I, Brenda Milliorn, will my ability to arrive at school 35 minutes too early to Jackie Benjamin.

I, Jim Monday, will my wrestling knowledge and my ability to give Mr. Decker headaches to Bob Breen, the heavyweight.

I, Dawn Peacock, will my books with D.S. scribbled all over them to Darlene Scamen; and to anyone unfortunate enough to get my locker, a pair of roller skates to get to and from classes.

I, Charles Rapp, will my fantastic ability of sleeping in Bookkeeping Class without getting caught to Mark Miller.

I, Terry Reed, will to the 1967 M-DI-AN photographer my ability to take good pictures of the cheerleaders at the wrong times.

I, Gus Rousonelos, will all my tomato and pumpkin seeds to Dennis Randolph to plant in Terry Reed and Kit Johnson's clover field.

I, Kathy Satorius, will my Vietnam Newsweek reports to any Junior unlucky enough to get them.

I, Becky Shearer, will my great interest in Social Problems class to Linda Vinyard, and my fondness of German to Andrea Hammond.

I, Bob Shearer, will my interest in school to Larry Flatness.

I, Ag Siron, will my battered French horn to the junk dealer who offers the best price, my locker to any Junior with a lot of garbage, and last but certainly not least my cheerleading skirt to . . . Bonnie Beasley.

I, Mary Ann Slingsby, will my ability to stay awake in class to next year's Steve Thorsen.

I, Landis Smith, will my ability to stay awake in Miss Isham's 7th hour study hall to Norm Marlow.

I, Bill Sorenson, will my ability to run an elevator to the braver members of the next Bookkeeping class.

I, Cathy Stirniman, will my ability to yell (accidentally), "Stop the bus!" and have the driver take me up on it to Andrea Hammond, who was always very jealous of this specific talent I possess.

I, Linda Sweeney, will one brand new formal to any girl who knows whether she's going to the Prom or not.

I, Carol Teague, will my ability to be talkative at the wrong time to Gayle Stalker and Diane Phillips and my 3 year-old gym suit, providing it holds together, to my sister, Sandy.

I, Steve Thorsen, will my superb get-along-ability with all the tough demanding teachers of MCHS to any poor, young, innocent person having trouble with them.

I, Penny Todd, will my forwardness to Gail Flatness.

I, Bob Turner, will my assigned seat on the bus (which I shared with none other than the luscious Dawn Peacock) to Bob Friant.

I, Jerry Unland, will my Army Surplus tennis shoes and my good Oldsmobile to Ed Kruger.

I, Jackie Vaughn, will my volleyball ability to Patsy Brooks and my love of Chaucer, Newsweek, Science and Math Weekly, and third book reports to all the Juniors. (I'm sure they'll need it.)

I, Jean Wildey, will all my issues of Practical English, American Observer, Today's Secretary, Newspointer, Newsweek, Literary Cavalcade, and any other works of literary value to Sharon Keplar.

I, Ken Wilhelmi, will my lightning speed and efficiency in turning in absentee slips to Dave Murley.

I, Bill Wilson, will my initiative and courage to remain another year in good old M.C.H.S. to Bud Buell and Tim Chism.
